US Law

Our services are provided to US Consumers, and our Privacy Notice is governed by US legal requirements. If consumers access our services from outside the US, such as by using our websites, they agree to the application of US law. The Privacy Notice was posted and is effective as of April 19, 2021. We reserve the right to change our Privacy Notice at any time. Consumers can always view the current Privacy Notice by clicking on the Privacy Statement link at the bottom of Aerojet Rocketdyne websites.

California resident rights

If you live in California, you may have additional rights. If you are a California resident who is also an Aerojet Rocketdyne employee, job applicant, owner, officer, director or contractor, click HERE for the California-only "California Data Privacy Notice/Notice at Collection" for additional rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act, which may be different than as identified below.

California Civil Code Section 1798.83 gives you the right to:

- Receive a list of all third parties we may have disclosed your Personal Information to within the past year for direct marketing purposes; and
- A description of the categories of Personal Information disclosed

The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, California Civil Code sec. 1798.100 – 1798.199, provides the right to:

- Learn about the categories of Personal Information we have collected from or about you in the past 12 months
- Get a copy of Personal Information that we have collected from or about you once every 12 months
- Receive a list of the kinds of third-party service providers we hire to help with internal business functions
- Obtain the categories of Personal Information that we may have sold or otherwise shared in the past 12 months
- Learn about the categories of third parties we may have sold your Personal Information to
- Have consumer Personal Information removed from our systems
- Choose whether to opt out from our sales of Personal Information
- Lodge complaints about the way we handle your Personal Information
- Not be discriminated against for exercising your rights under this Privacy Policy

You can make requests to receive copies of Personal Information and to have Personal Information deleted on behalf of members of your household by submitting requests on their behalf along with written authorization from each member of your household.

You can also submit requests through an agent (like a membership organization you belong to, your attorney, or someone else you trust) that you have authorized in writing to act on your behalf. To do so you will need to either execute a power of attorney with them to act on your behalf or give your agent their written authorization to do so.

We will need to verify consumer's identity when you request copies of their Personal Information, to know about what categories of Personal Information we collect and share, or have their Personal Information deleted. We will ask consumers for a photo ID that matches the information we have in our systems so that we can be sure that we are revealing potential sensitive information only to people who are entitled to receive it.

If you are making requests on behalf of your household, we will also need to verify the identities of each member of their household too.

In order to exercise these rights, you can contact us through email at privacy@rocket.com or contact their assigned Human Resources Business Partner.
