

Paul Lundstrom

Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer

As Vice President of Finance and CFO, Paul Lundstrom reports to the Aerojet Rocketdyne Holdings, Inc. CEO and President Eileen Drake. In this role, he serves as a member of the executive management team, participating in key decisions pertaining to strategic initiatives, the operating model and operational execution.

In addition, he directs and is responsible for the organization's accounting practices, the maintenance of its fiscal records as well as the preparation and interpretation of financial reports for management and external groups.

Mr. Lundstrom plays a key role in the administration of critical corporate governance matters as they relate to a public company. In conjunction with Ms. Drake, Mr. Lundstrom serves as the focal point for communication with the board of directors, senior management and company shareholders.

In November 2016, Mr. Lundstrom joined the company's El Segundo, California headquarters from United Technologies Corporation (UTC), where he served as vice president of Investor Relations, heading up an award-winning Investor Relations team. During his tenure with UTC, he developed a strong track record of driving profitable growth with a proven focus on delivering value for shareholders.

In prior positions with UTC, Mr. Lundstrom was vice president of Finance and CFO for the Building & Industrial Systems and Climate, Controls & Security businesses in Asia. He also served as vice president of Finance and CFO for Carrier's commercial HVAC business in North America. Before moving to Carrier in 2006, he served in various finance leadership roles for UTC's aerospace and defense business, Hamilton Sundstrand.

Mr. Lundstrom holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance from Truman State University. He received his Master of Business Administration from Columbia University in New York, and is a Registered Certified Public Accountant in the state of Illinois.
