

Q234 – Production Readiness Review

A Readiness Review is to be performed at key operations (determined by Aerojet Rocketdyne Quality or Manufacturing representative and the Seller) if a lapse in production exceeds two years. This is applicable for a minimum quantity of five pieces of each part number.

Completed readiness reviews are to accompany and be archived with the Seller's shop travelers.